The authority for such action on your part will be found in the charter granted to the Association by act of General Assembly, ratified April 12, 1869, to which we respectfully refer

We desire to ask your attention to the fact that the Association has been remarkably successful. It has, according to the report of the Finance Committee, submitted and published March 6th, 1873, to which we refer, expended in permanent improvements $13,375.96, and for labor $6,215.39. It is now in debt about $6,000. The Fairs held in 1869, 1870 and 1871 were and 1873 paid expenses, the receipts having been curtailed by causes well known to your body and over which the managers had no control.

The occasion was a Tournament in the day and a Coronation Ball at night, which the young folks had arranged. There were 15 Knights entered for the lists, Brunswick, Bladen and Sampson counties all being represented, and the riding is said to have been very good.

The following were the successful Mr. J. Pate, Knight of Gray's Creek, who crowned Miss Mollie Rackley as Queen of Love and Beauty.

Mr. D. Culbreth, Knight of the Indian Chief, chose Miss Lattie Spence as First Maid of Honor. Mr. C. McDonald, Knight of Gore, who selected Miss Nolie Wooten as Second Maid of Honor, Mr. S. Pate, Knight of The Old North State, who chose Miss Virginia Gainey as Third Maid of Honor. The Supper and Coronation Ball took place at the residence of Mr. William McDonald. The supper was elegantly gotten up and dancing was continued with much spirit, throughout the entire night. There were upwards of two hundred persons present, all of whom agreed in the assertion that the occasion was one of the most pleasant ever known in that neighborhood.
